Discover Downtown

A former railroad junction, Downtown Florence has seen incredible growth over the past decade as the district has undergone significant revitalization. Now, as new businesses inhabit buildings dating back to the 1900's, Downtown captures not only the history of the city, but its future as well. With over 70+ local businesses within just six blocks, you won't have to go far to experience some of the best shopping, dining, and entertainment that the Pee Dee has to offer.

Where to Eat in Downtown

Downtown Florence currently offers 17 independently owned and operated restaurants and eateries to choose from for your next meal. Whether you're craving burgers, pad thai, or even a traditional English afternoon tea, you can find it in Downtown.

Events & Festivals in Downtown

Downtown is home to many award-winning street festivals, outdoor concerts, family events, and more. The event season kicks off in February with the popular Chocolate Crawl and runs until December with our holiday events. A full schedule can be found here.

SC Pecan Music & Food Festival

Held annually on the first Saturday in November, the SC Pecan Music & Food Festival is an all-day, free event that features nine stages of entertainment, 250+ food and retail vendors, art demos, amusement rides, and more.

Florence After 5

On the final Friday of the month, the 100 block of South Dargan Street is transformed into Downtown's favorite block party, Florence After 5. This summer concert series runs from May to September and features a new band each month along with plenty of beer and food vendors.

Public Art in Downtown

Downtown has a robust public art collection for residents and visitors to enjoy. Currently, the collection contains ten pieces of 2D and 3D artworks from local and international artists. Download the public art trail guide here to see each piece in the collection.

Where to Live in Downtown

Downtown is currently home to two apartment complexes, the Emerson Apartments located at 150 S. Irby Street and the Kress Corner Apartments, located on N. Dargan Street. An additional apartment complex, along with condos and townhomes for rent or purchase, will soon be available.

See you soon!
